D.O.No.12/1/50-SRB.
SPECIAL RECRUITMENT BOARD.

W3 CB. NEW DELHI-3, the 23rd March 1950.

Dear Mr. Srinivasan,

Please refer to your official letters No.11610/CB, dated the 27th February 1950 and No.11842/CB, dated the 7th March 1950, forwarding the proformae and confidential reports in respect of the State Civil Officers to be considered for selection to the Indian Administrative Service.

2. You would perhaps recall our conversation while you were here last about the confidential reports on all officers whom the Special Recruitment Board have to consider for selection to the Indian Administrative Service. As the confidential reports received with your letters referred to above are not complete, particularly in respect of the officers who are at present employed as Deputy Commissioners and in posts above the rank of Deputy Commissioners, I am to request that special reports on their work may be prepared and forwarded to me for the perusal of the Special Recruitment Board.

3. I note that no confidential reports have been maintained in respect of the officers mentioned in the margin as they have completed their probationary periods only recently. In their cases also special reports may be called for and passed on to me for perusal of the Board.
